Mid-Autumn Festival Fun Day

Date: 29 September 2023

Objective(s)

- To help children experience the rich traditions and festive culture of the Mid-Autumn Festival

Brief Descriptions:

During the Mid-Autumn Festival Fun Day, children listened to traditional Mid-Autumn Festival stories, made mooncakes together and enjoyed festive foods. Children also deepened their understanding of the traditional festival through games, such as a mooncake-carrying game and a treasure hunt for Mid-Autumn Festival-related items.

Visit to the Hong Kong Palace Museum

Date: 20 October 2023

Objective(s)

- To learn about the dragon robes worn by Qing dynasty emperors
- To learn the meanings of the patterns on dragon robes — dragons and bats
- To observe the features of the items emperors used in daily life and dining

Brief Descriptions:

As part of the “Getting to Know Hong Kong” theme, children compared Hong Kong in the past and present. This led them back to the daily life of emperors, including how emperors wore different clothing at banquets.

Extension activity: Children dressed up in party clothes for a birthday celebration.
