Mid-Autumn Lantern Carnival at Victoria Park

Date: 16 September 2024

Objective(s)

- To enrich children's experience of the traditions and festive culture of the Mid-Autumn Festival, and to help them understand that lanterns are an important part of the festival, symbolising prosperity and good luck

Brief Descriptions:

The Mid-Autumn Lantern Carnival is an important Mid-Autumn Festival celebration, usually held around the 15th day of the eighth lunar month. Children visited Victoria Park to admire large-scale lantern displays and traditional lanterns. Seeing the giant lanterns helped children connect lanterns with the Mid-Autumn Festival and deepened their understanding of the festival. Children also learned that traditional lanterns are made from bamboo and paper. The activity helps build community cohesion and promote Mid-Autumn culture.

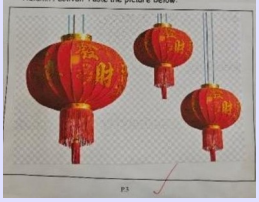
Parent-child activity

Holding Lantern Carnivals during the Mid-Autumn Festival is one of the Chinese traditions. Various lanterns, including star fruit, lotus, goldfish, and rabbits, will be hung throughout Hong Kong for the public to admire.

(E) What lanterns did you and your family admire in the Mid-Autumn Festival? Paste the picture below:



(C) Giant pandas, or pandas, are the endemic species in China and are distributed in Sichuan, Shaanxi, and Gansu. They are also regarded as the national symbol of China.

There are currently 6 pandas living in Hong Kong, namely Ying Ying, Le Le, and their twin panda babies. We can visit them in the Ocean Park.

(D) Which lantern in Victoria Park did you like the most? Please draw in the box below.
